Employee Relations in Practice

COURSE OVERVIEW

This programme develops a working approach to employee relations in practice in the context of people processes and workforce priorities. Participants move from understanding the main concepts to examining a case, testing alternatives and explaining a practical recommendation. The three modules focus on role clarity, case documentation and constructive dialogue. Examples are selected after the training brief so that they reflect the responsibilities and experience of the participant group.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. Explain the role of role clarity and identify the information required for a reliable assessment.

2. Use a structured worksheet to examine case documentation and compare reasonable alternatives.

3. Identify assumptions, missing evidence and implementation concerns related to constructive dialogue.

4. Prepare an evidence-based people initiative and follow-up measures for discussion with an HR or learning team.

5. Translate the exercise into a workplace action plan with owners, review points and measurable progress.

WHO BENEFITS

HR and people-development professionals: apply role clarity to their responsibilities through a guided case and a course-specific worksheet. Line managers and workforce planners: apply case documentation to their responsibilities through a guided case and a course-specific worksheet. Learning and organisational-development teams: apply constructive dialogue to their responsibilities through a guided case and a course-specific worksheet.

DELIVERY AT A GLANCE

Indicative format: three learning days, one module per day. In-house and live online options. English or Arabic delivery is subject to a suitably qualified instructor. Shorter executive sessions may be scoped separately. Fees are quoted after the brief.

PRACTICAL LEARNING PLAN

Day 1: Role clarity

Map a current situation involving role clarity; separate facts from assumptions and identify questions that need clarification.

Method: short concept discussion, guided worksheet, group comparison and instructor feedback.

Day 2: Case documentation

Compare two approaches to case documentation; explain the expected benefits, limitations and information gaps.

Method: short concept discussion, guided worksheet, group comparison and instructor feedback.

Day 3: Constructive dialogue

Develop an action plan for constructive dialogue; assign responsibilities and agree how results should be reviewed.

Method: short concept discussion, guided worksheet, group comparison and instructor feedback.

APPLIED EXERCISE

Working as an HR or learning team, participants receive a fictional workplace scenario with incomplete information. They identify evidence gaps, compare alternatives and prepare an evidence-based people initiative and follow-up measures. Assessment focuses on reasoning, assumptions and a clear explanation of the proposed next step.

PARTICIPANT TAKEAWAYS

A completed case worksheet, a topic checklist and a personal workplace action plan. Materials are educational; no professional accreditation, licence or examination award is implied.

PROPOSED DELIVERY WINDOWS

These are indicative dates for expressions of interest, not confirmed events. No venue or instructor booking is represented. Each option requires a written quotation, suitable instructor, venue agreement and sufficient enrolment before confirmation. Do not make travel arrangements on the basis of this brochure.
